

ROUND 4

Question 38:

In which book did the narrator almost name her play Nuns and Noodles Changed My Life?

Answer:

Dara Palmer's Major Drama [p. 261]
by Emma Shevah

Question 39:

In which book do they leave notes in the planter in front of the house?

Answer:

Me, Frida, and the Secret of the Peacock Ring [p. 125]
by Angela Cervantes

Question 40:

In which book will you find a character called, "The Human Vacuum Cleaner?"

Answer:

Forest World [p. 150]
by Margarita Engle

Question 41:

[quote] "Was I going to get parts in anything ever in this entire world if I had the wrong face?"

Answer:

Dara Palmer's Major Drama [p. 89]
by Emma Shevah

Question 42:

[quote] "I definitely wasn't eavesdropping. I was just collecting evidence."

Answer:

The Real McCoys [p. 189]
by Matthew Swanson

Question 43:

[quote] "She had always been told that her name meant "Dove"."

Answer:

Me, Frida, and the Secret of the Peacock Ring [p. 49]
by Angela Cervantes

Question 44:

[quote] "Acting and being other people is way more fun than actually being yourself."

Answer:

Dara Palmer's Major Drama [p. 121]
by Emma Shevah

Question 45:

In which book is there a section called, "Truly Uncool, Creepy People?"

Answer:

Forest World [p. 193]
by Margarita Engle

Question 46:

In which book is there a chapter called "A Door Opens"?

Answer:

Hidden Figures Young Readers' Edition [table of contents]
by Margot Lee Shetterly

Question 47:

[quote] "I can be quieter than worms, and worms are very quiet, unless they are convincing you not to eat them, and then they are less quiet, and very convincing, though I usually still eat them because they are delicious."

Answer:

The Girl Who Drank the Moon [p. 189]

by Kelly Barnhill

Question 48:

This book mentions professional surfer Bethany Hamilton.

Answer:

Sharks: Nature's Perfect Hunters [page 106]

by Joe Flood

Question 49:

[quote] "These candies have four layers. Most people assume there are only three, but assumptions are often wrong. There is more to them than meets the eye."

Answer:

Save Me A Seat [p. 212]

by Sarah Weeks

BONUS! Question 50: [worth 4 points]

[quote] "And yes, it means letting students read books with things in them we might disagree with and letting them make up their own minds about things, [which is downright scary sometimes. But that's what good education is all about.]"

Answer:

Ban This Book [page 33]

by Alan Gratz